Posthub offer savings on Direct Mail

Christ for All Nations switched supplier in order to save costs on their direct mail and Posthub offered a highly competitive price.

Switching to Posthub meant we could save costs during a difficult time in the industry without having to sacrifice on service provided. Communication with Posthub has been quick and efficient which in turn has helped to ensure our direct mail process is smooth and hassle free.

Daniel Beadle explains, “The process of switching to Posthub from our previous supplier was quick and simple thanks to the great service Posthub provide. I had been apprehensive about switching from a supplier we had been using for a while just in case things were complicated or got messy during the switch but I could not be more pleased with how easy Posthub made it. It is something I would have done a lot sooner in hindsight.

The Posthub team are a fantastic group, always ready to help whenever needed and it gives me great confidence in the team knowing the many years of experience they have in the direct mail industry.”
